

Rowing Day – 19 MAR 2016 – 19th Edition
1st/14th Brighton - Sea Scouts

SCRUFFIES NEWS

- In which Scout learn to successfully row as a team

“Scruffie extends his Rowing Leadership to all Scouts...And train Tony on Rowing Skills”

“Scruffie the Adventure Dog – Senior Cox, Supervisory Beach Marshall (AKA – CRO - Chief Rowing Officer)”

After a very successful Leadership Rowing day for the Leadership Team , Scruffie decided to extend his Rowing lessons to all the Scouts at 1st/14th. Even though it was a cool 18^o with a southerly and 80% forecast of showers (Ed Note Scruffies been sharpening his weather skills cos he thinks the Aussies really know their weather!) more than 20 scouts registered for his Rowing day at Karkarook! - What a day

SCOUT SKILLS

1. Learning the DRILLS : Official Rowing Commands and team instructions
2. Rowing terminology: Oars, Boat, Positions
3. What it takes to be a good TEAM

Notable Mentions & Awards

- Great leadership from Sam and Clara
- Amelia, and Andrew get invited to be guests at the Leadership group

Thanks

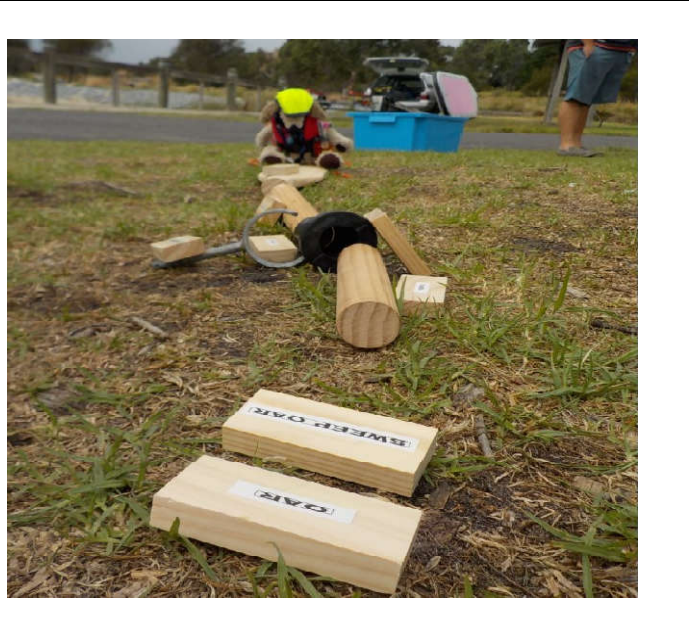

- To all the scouts that came out to make a rainy day a fun successful one!
- Tony for Afternoon Tea, Boats and getting everything so well organised.

Scruffie puts Tony in charge of teaching the rowing skills on the water..But first On land

Sam Lyons & Clara Webber show off their leadership skills - Teaching Port, Starboard and parts of a Boat

Scruffie says : Why did you cut the Oar up if you just want to put it together (editor: I think its a game for parts of an oar)

Scruffie demonstrated how an oar works

Loading and Unloading a Boat - Best do this on land before you get wet.

Sam's team – winners again – Great Leadership Sam!

But then realises that the paddle board isn't a rowing boat!! Tony!!!!

... this is a rowing boat...

... James practices being the Cox and realises that being the leader isn't always easy...

Pull Away together .- Great Team work
